COOKIE POLICY

NEWTON

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you use our website and also allows us to improve our site.

1. WHAT IS A COOKIE?

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

Cookies may be essential or non-essential.

2. ESSENTIAL COOKIES

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website.

3. NON-ESSENTIAL COOKIES

- Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests.

We only use essential cookies. The table below sets out the cookies that are used on our website, and why they are used.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below:

Essential Cookies

| Cookie | Owner | Purpose | Type | More information |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| .AspNetCore.Cookies | Newton | Essential cookie used to persist a user's authenticated session. | Strictly necessary cookie | Microsoft documentation |

Our site may, from time to time, contain links to and from the websites of third-parties. If you follow a link to any of these websites, please note that these websites have their own cookie policies and that we do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies.

HOW CAN I CONTROL MY COOKIES?

You can use your browser settings to:

- Delete all cookies

- Block all cookies

- Allow all cookies

- Block 'third party' cookies

- Clear all cookies when you close the browser
